

Olive Ashworth Archive

Olive Ashworth (1915-2000) was a Brisbane-born commercial and mural artist, textile designer and photographer. She is known for her natural motifs inspired by the Great Barrier Reef and North Queensland rainforests. She was a very successful artist running Burns Philp's art department in Brisbane, then her own Olive Ashworth Publicity Services for over twenty years.

Archive Location: 135L

Detailed Listing

Original layout of the Townsville Industrial booklet with original photographs.