

Harry Aitcheson Archive

Harry Aitcheson (1865-1941) was born in Ravenswood in 1865 and died in Sydney in 1941. He commenced a career as a teacher at Millchester State School and later entered into an apprenticeship at Rutherford's Pharmacy in Gill Street, Charters Towers. After qualifying as a chemist he set up his own business in Gill Street, which he continued until 1938. His receipts and expenditure book shows entries from July 1932 to June 1938.

Archives Location: 34R

Detailed Listing

HA/RB – receipts and expenditure book, one volume.