

Australian Society of Accountants (Townsville Branch) Archive

The Australian Society of Accountants formed in 1952 through the amalgamation of previous bodies. It is one of the largest accountancy bodies in the world. The Society carries out its business through an extensive system of National and Divisional Councils and Committees. This collection includes records of both the present Society and its predecessor.

Archives Location: 39L

Detailed Listing

ASA/1 Cash book: January 1940 - December 1941

ASA/2 Cash book: July 1960 - June 1964

ASA/3 Ledger: December 1953 - December 1963