

Kimball Allen Archive

Kimball Allen, head of the English Department and Senior Resident Master of Townsville Grammar School from 1961 to 1986, was commissioned to write the history of the school for its centenary in 1988. His book, The History of the Townsville Grammar School 1888-1988, was published in 1990 after five years of research.

This collection contains much of Allen's research material including correspondence and questionnaires from many former students.
