

Brigadier L H Lemaire Archive

Brigadier L H Lemaire served in the Australian forces at Townsville during the Second World War, after which he became a Director of Immigration in North Queensland. This large collection of slides with detailed commentary notes includes tours of Australia, United States, Europe and Asia. There is also a notable series of slides promoting the post-1945 immigration program, 'Cavalcade of Citizenship', produced by the Department of Immigration for its 1962 Australian Citizenship Convention in Canberra.
